

SWIFT JUSTICE

Laurel Singleton, Center for Education in Law and Democracy

December 4, 2009

While viewing the film . . .

Consider what interests/values underlie the positions that people take in the film? In each circle, write an interest or value that is apparent in the film. Note the people whose positions or views on immigration seem to be influenced by that interest/value. If appropriate, show how these values/interests are mutually supportive or in opposition.

